

Celebrate National Siblings Day!

Sibling Needs Across the LifeSpan

*A presentation by Lindsay Hyland,
the New York State Representative for the Sibling Leadership Network*

Lindsay will be presenting information to parents on what it is like to be a sibling of someone with a disability. The needs of siblings of people with disabilities are complex, varied, and change over time. Though each sibling experience is unique, Lindsay will be providing some insight on what siblings need throughout different stages of their lives.

Wednesday, April 10, 2019

6:00pm to 8:00pm

Institute for Basic Research

1050 Forest Hill Road, Staten Island

Please RSVP to mfegeley@ptopnys.org or 718-494-3462

Lindsay currently lives and works in Staten Island, New York. She is a math teacher at Totten Intermediate School within the special education department. She is a member of the Sibling Committee at AHRC. As the New York State Representative for the Sibling Leadership Network, she co-facilitates a sibling group called SibsNY. Lindsay has three sisters, one who currently lives in an AHRC Community Residence, also on Staten Island.
