AHRC New York City

Please join AHRC NYC's President, Raymond Ferrigno, board members, family members of children with developmental disabilities and staff on October 19th. We want to hear from you about your needs as you navigate the system of services for your sons, daughters, and loved ones.

Learn about the parent/family movement that created the services you now benefit from and how important the voices of families will be in retaining the services that currently exist and in creating new services.
