The New York State Office for People with Disabilities (OPWDD) funds Family Support Services (FSS) Programs, which are contracted out to voluntary, not-for-profit agencies to provide the services. The FSS Program serves individuals with developmental disabilities of all ages.

A part of the requirement to receive FSS is that the individual applying meets eligibility requirements as established by OPWDD and resides at home with his/her biological or adoptive family.

If you are applying for services for the first time, you need to contact the Staten Island Developmental Disabilities Regional Office (SIDDRO) Front Door at: 718-982-1913.

If you have specific questions please contactFSSAC@aol.com
